

FAU/IAB-Seminar Macroeconomics and Labor Markets

Summer Term 2022

-online via Zoom-

The Chairs of Macroeconomics (Christian Merkl) and Global Governance (Christoph Moser) at FAU and the Macroeconomic domain at IAB co-organize a joint seminar series at the intersection of macroeconomics, trade and labor economics. The seminar typically takes place on Tuesdays at noon or 2 pm (German time). A preliminary schedule can be found below. Zoom login information will be distributed by e-mail. If you are a researcher and you are interested to join the talks, please send an e-mail to macrolabor.seminar@gmail.com.

Preliminary Schedule

26. April 2 pm	Steven Davis (Chicago Booth) Why Working From Home Will Stick (joint work with Jose Maria Barrero and Nicholas Bloom)
10. May noon	Harald Fadinger (University of Mannheim) tba
24. May noon	Berthold Wigger (Karlsruhe Institute of Technology) tba
21. June 2 pm	Laura Pilossoph (Federal Reserve Bank of New York) tba
5. July noon	Andrej Sokol (ECB) tba
19. July noon	Christian Kleinertz (University of Duisburg-Essen) tba