

FAU/IAB-Seminar Macroeconomics and Labor Markets

Summer Term 2023

The Chairs of Macroeconomics (Christian Merkl) and Global Governance and International Trade (Christoph Moser) at FAU and the Macroeconomic domain at IAB co-organize a joint seminar series at the intersection of macroeconomics, trade and labor economics. The seminar typically takes place on Tuesdays at noon or 2 pm (German time). A preliminary schedule can be found below. The seminar will take place in hybrid form in summer 2023. If you are a researcher and you are interested to join the talks, please send an e-mail to macrolabor.seminar@gmail.com.

Preliminary Schedule

25 April 2023 noon (Zoom)	Francis Kramarz (CREST) Matching Workers' Skills and Firms' Technologies: From Bundling to Unbundling (joint work with Philippe Choné)
9 May 2023 noon (IAB, E10)	Bastian Schulz (Aarhus University) Marriage and Divorce under Labor Market Uncertainty (joint work Christian Holzner)
23 May 2023 2 pm (Zoom)	Daniel Bias (Vanderbilt University) Great Recession Babies: How Are Startups Shaped by Macro Conditions at Birth? (joint work with Alexander Ljungqvist (SSE))
6 June 2023 noon (FAU, 0.423)	Matthias Hertweck (Deutsche Bundesbank) EU enlargement and (temporary) migration: Effects on labour market outcomes in Germany (joint work with Luisa Hammer)
20 June 2023 noon (IAB, E10)	David Koll (Universität Mannheim) Equity and Efficiency of Childcare Subsidies: A Dynamic Structural Approach (joint work with Dominik Sachs, Fabian Stürmer-Heiber, and Hélène Turon)
4 July 2023 noon, FAU, 2.429	Ana Figueiredo (Erasmus School of Economics, Rotterdam) Labor market beliefs and the gender wage gap (joint work with Christine Braun)
18 July 2023 noon (IAB, 7.06)	Brigitte Hochmuth (Universität Wien) The Dark Shadow of Benefit Reforms in the Open Economy (joint work with Christian Merkl and Heiko Stüber)