

FAU/IAB-Seminar Macroeconomics and Labor Markets

Winter Term 2025/2026

The Chairs of Macroeconomics (Christian Merkl) and Global Governance and International Trade (Christoph Moser) at FAU and the Macroeconomic domain at IAB co-organize a joint seminar series at the intersection of macroeconomics, trade and labor economics. The seminar typically takes place on Tuesdays at noon or 2 pm (German time). A preliminary schedule can be found below. The seminar will take place in hybrid form in winter 2025/26. If you are a researcher and you are interested to join the talks, please send an e-mail to macrolabor.seminar@gmail.com.

Preliminary Schedule

29 October 2025 115 pm (FAU, LG 0.423)	Andreas Müller (University of Zurich) The Ins and Outs of Vacancies
25 November 2025 noon (FAU, LG 4.154)	Cesar Barreto (OECD) Left-Behind? West-East Disparities in the Cost of Job Loss
16 December 2025 4 pm (Zoom)	Mine Senses (Johns Hopkins University) Trade Shocks: Next Generation
13 January 2026 noon (FAU, LG 0.423)	Michael Irlacher (Johannes-Kepler-Universität Linz) Wage Setting in Multiproduct Firms
27 January 2026 noon (IAB, E10)	Antoine Bertheau (Banque de France & Sciences Po, Paris) tba